

Globalisation: the fightback

A Morning Star conference with

DEREK WALL

and

CAROLINE LUCAS

Green Party principal speakers

JOHN HAYLETT

Morning Star editor

After the success of last year's June event, the Morning Star is to host a major labour movement delegate conference on Saturday April 19 2008 Mander Hall, Hamilton House, Mabledon Place, London WC1

There will be morning and afternoon plenary sessions and afternoon workshops, to be hosted by guest organisations. The hall holds a maximum of 250 people, so get your organisation to book delegate places promptly in advance – just fill in and return the form below

Free refreshments will be provided

The cost is £10 a head (£5 unwaged)

Registration commences 9.30am; conference ends 4pm

Supported by: Fire Brigades Union, RMT, Unite (T&G) Unite (Amicus), OH Parsons Solicitors, Prison Officers Association, UCATT, NUM, Communist Party of Britain, Thompsons Solicitors

Name of delegate

Address

Telephone

Email

Organisation

I enclose a cheque for £10 (waged)/£5 (unwaged) made out to PPPS
Please return this form to William Rust House, 52 Beachy Road, London E3 2NS or call (020) 8510-0815 to book by phone.

Platform featuring:

Tony Burke

Unite assistant general secretary

Bill Greenshields

NUT president

Jackie Simpkins

War on Want

On the agenda

Climate change: Ecosocialist Alternatives

Hosted by Green Left; expert speaker: Derek Wall. Chaired by Phelim MacCafferty (Green Party)

Fighting Neoliberalism in the Americas

Hosted by Cuba Solidarity Campaign and Venezuela Information Centre; expert speaker: Dr Francisco Dominguez (Middlesex University). Chaired by Adrian Weir (Secretary, SERTUC International Committee)

Migrant Labour: Good, Bad or Inevitable?

Hosted by Southern and Eastern Region TUC; expert speaker: Sam Gurney (policy officer, TUC European and International Department). Chaired by Martin Gould (SERTUC President)

Global Capital and Trade Union Rights

Hosted by Institute for Employment Rights and the United Campaign for Repeal of Anti-Trade Union Laws; expert speaker: Steve Gillan (finance officer, Prison Officers Association). Chaired by Carolyn Jones (IER Director)